Clerk reported that the Calder Vale Country Club were to host it’s second tractor run in October. Date has yet to be confirmed but will email all once known. 5. Community event

This was discussed. It was resolved that it still wasn’t appropriate to organise anything just yet. This will be carried forward to the first meeting of 2022 to be reviewed again at that time. KIV an idea from Councillor Ibison to organise a litter pick on the morning of the Community event and have all involved finish at the event for refreshments.

6. Notice board at Calder Vale

Prior to the meeting, both Councillors Commander & Gorst visited the potential site for the board. A suggestion that the board be wall mounted to the back of the bus stop; measuring approx. 4ft x 3ft with cork backing and 2 lockable doors was suggested. This was discussed and it was resolved that Councillor Gorst would ask a joiner who resides in Calder Vale village for a quote for a hardwood board made from recycled plastics (or similar) to compare in November meeting. Clerk gave Councillor Gorst keys to the current Parish notice board in Bonds so he could take the joiner to also obtain a quote for some maintenance to be done on that.
